THE PHOTO ALBUM

WORDSPOT

A Do you know these words and phrases? Look them up in the wordlist, then match them with the names and expressions below. What is the connection between them?

~~brand new~~ a fashion show a kindergarten to take a photo an attic a trip abroad an inventor a hairdresser's an explorer to dress up

1 brand new really new

2 ... a fashion model

3 ... Christopher Columbus

4 ... four-year-old children

5 ... a new hairstyle

6 ... funny clothes

7 ... a camera

8 ... at the top of a house

9 ... a foreign country

10 ... Nikola Tesla

READING

B The children in the HBFC are showing each other their photo albums. Read Pete's and Elliot's descriptions of their photos and answer the four questions.

1 How old were they?

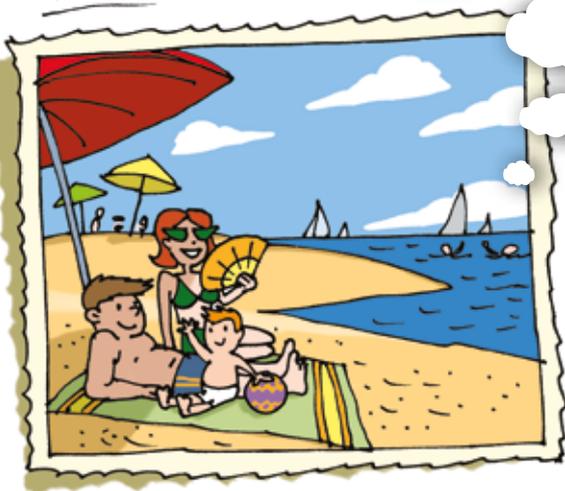

2 Where were they?

3 Who were they with?

4 Why were they there?

This is me when I was four.
I was at the seaside with my parents.
I remember that we were all very excited because this was my first trip abroad.
We were there on holiday.

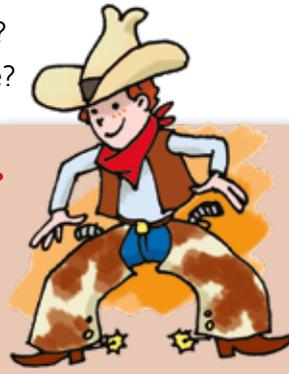

This is me when I was eight.
I was in the attic with my friends and my sister April. There was a box with fancy clothes, so we dressed up. I was a wizard, April was a witch, my friend Greg was a clown and my friend Jessica was Snow White. It was great fun!

C Ana, Ella, Russell and Zack are describing their photos. Their sentences are mixed up. Can you find four boxes for each of them? The boxes give answers to the questions below. Then listen and check.

- 1 How old were you?    3 Who were you with?
 2 Where were you?    4 Why were you there?

I was 8, and this was my first film.

I think I was 9. I was very angry!

There were lots of actors there. Actually, they were Indians in the film.

I was in a Hollywood studio for the first time. I was really excited.

I was there because my agent called my mum. Yes, I was famous after that.

We were there because we all had a high temperature and a sore throat.

I was there with other kids from my class who were also ill.

My mum had a brand new camera and wanted to take a photo of me. But I was at the doctor's!

I was a fashion model in this photo. Some of the girls were younger than me; they were only 6!

We were there because the kindergarten was closed, and my parents were at work.

I was in the kitchen with my granny and my cousin Iva.

I was at my grandparents' place in Dubrovnik.

We were in Paris, at a fashion show for a children's summer collection.

I was there with my favourite designer.

I was there because Jean Paul called me. Just kidding! I was at the school fashion show.

I was a little girl. I was 4 years old, I think.

D Correct these sentences.

- Pete was at the seaside with his school friends.
- Elliot was in the attic alone.
- Ella was at a fashion show in Rome.
- Ana was at her grandparents' place because the kindergarten was far from her house.
- Russell was in Hollywood when he was 7 years old.
- Zack was the only pupil in his class who was ill.

How old were you?	I was 4 years old.
Where was she?	She was at her grandparents'.
Why were the children at the doctor's?	Because they were ill.

a waitress   a scientist   a computer programmer   a ghost   an explorer   a hairdresser

F Read and listen to Ella's description of her photos. Which photo is she describing? Can you guess what she was in each photo? Write it down. Listen and check.

- A My photo album is full of pictures in which I am in disguise. Look, that's me at the History Museum. I was a . . . , but I don't think I was spooky. But Mr and Mrs Doyle don't agree, ha-ha!
- B Here I was a . . . in "Fishorama", a fish restaurant. I was there for a week, but I wasn't very good at it. I don't like fish, you know.
- C In this photo, I was a . . . . I was in my friend's lab. There was an explosion because I mixed up some wrong things. My friend was really angry.
- D In this photo, I was on a ship called "Miriam". Actually, I was in disguise as a sea . . . . This was the Atlantic Ocean. I wanted to find Atlantis.
- E Here I was a . . . . I was in a big computer company called "PC Now". I wasn't very interested in computers, so I decided to disguise myself as someone else.
- F This was my favourite disguise. I was a . . . at "Nicky's". This hairdresser's salon wasn't very popular, but I liked it there. I was a specialist in wigs.

G Answer these questions about Ella's disguises.

- 1 What was Ella in "Fishorama"?
- 2 What was Ella at "Nicky's"?
- 3 What was Ella in the History Museum?
- 4 What was Ella in "PC Now"?
- 5 What was Ella on "Miriam"?
- 6 What was Ella in her friend's lab?

H Make four questions about Ella's disguises. Answer with Yes, she was. or No, she wasn't..

Was	Ella	a hairdresser a waitress a computer programmer an explorer an inventor a ghost	in "Fishorama"? at "Nicky's"? in the History Museum? in "PC Now"? in her friend's lab? on "Miriam"?

WRITING

F Make a quiz for your partner. Follow these steps.

- Copy four sentences from Task E into your notebook. Leave a gap for the name, like this: . . . . . was a composer although he couldn't hear.
- Close the book now and exchange notebooks with your partner.
- Write the names of the famous people in the gaps.
- Exchange the notebooks again and check each other's answers.

WRITING AND SPEAKING

G Make sentences for your own "Clue Me In" Quiz! First, think about a famous person from the past. Then write five sentences about her or him by following this model.

He / She was born in . . . (where) in . . . (which year).

He / She lived in . . . (where).

He / She was a . . . (job). He / She . . . (did what).

He / She . . . (something interesting but not very important about him/her).

He / She . . . (something that made him or her famous).

Play the "Clue Me In" Quiz with your partner. Each correct answer scores a point. Who scores more points?
