Pete: Are you new?

Russell: Yes, I am. How about you?

Pete: No, I'm not. This is my old school.

Ana: I can't see Ella.

Cindy: No, she isn't here.

Ana: Is she ill?

Cindy: I don't think so. Maybe she is a bit late.

Ana: Are the boys happy that school is starting?

Cindy: Elliot and Sam are happy. They like school. Pete and the new boy aren't happy.

Pete doesn't like school, and the new boy feels nervous.

Elliot: Have you got a watch?

Sam: Yes, I have. We haven't got much time. Only five minutes. Hurry up!

Ana: Has Elliot got all his school stuff with him?

Cindy: Yes, he has. He has got his backpack.

Ana: How about Zack?

Cindy: He hasn't got anything, not even a pen.

April: I can't find my pencil box. Have you got it?

Elliot: No. And my keys aren't here. I can't find them. Do you know where they are?

April: Sorry, no. But maybe Mum knows where they are. Let's ask her. Maybe she can help us.

Mum: Sorry, kids. I can't help you. I'm in a hurry. Dad's waiting for me. You can ask him about your things.

Elliot: No need. Look, Tess has found your pencil box and my keys. They're under your bed. Oh, April, you're so untidy!

Emus are birds, but they can't fly because they are too tall and big. They have three special toes on their feet, so they can run fast and even swim. Koalas are called bears because they look like teddy bears, but they are not bears. They eat leaves, but they don't eat a lot and they don't drink water, because they spend most of their lives sleeping.

Australia is a country and a continent. Some people call it "Down Under" because it is in the Southern hemisphere. When it's summer in Europe, it is winter in Australia. The capital of Australia is Canberra, and the biggest city is Sydney. In the School of the Air, children learn from home. Aboriginal people are the native people of Australia. A boomerang is a tool which comes back to the thrower. There are many interesting animals that live in Australia, for example emus and kangaroos. C

The Sioux lived in Dakota. They hunted buffaloes. They ate buffalo meat, wild fruit and vegetables. Sitting bull was brave and clever. He became a Sioux chief. He got a beautiful headdress. The gold miners entered the Indian territory. Sitting bull didn't want war. He wanted white people to leave Indians alone. They danced the Ghost Dance. Sitting bull had a dream of the battle. Sioux couldn't find food. The soldiers came and killed Sitting Bull.
